

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE (ASL)

ASL 2140 - Basic American Sign Language (3 Credits)

Introduction to American Sign Language as used in the deaf community. General discussion of ASL systems and philosophies. Emphasis on building a basic vocabulary.

Corequisite(s): ASL 2140L

Attribute(s): FLAN - Foreign Language Degree ExHrs

ASL 2140L - Basic American Sign Lang. Lab (1 Credits)

A laboratory designed to offer additional practice in sign language by means of videotapes.

Corequisite(s): ASL 2140

Attribute(s): FLAN - Foreign Language Degree ExHrs

ASL 2150 - Interm American Sign Language (3 Credits)

A continuation of the basic course which expands the student's signing skills and introduces American Sign Language idioms. Provides a greater opportunity for skill development in ASL structure and idiomatic language.

Prerequisite(s): ASL 2140 and ASL 2140L

Corequisite(s): ASL 2150L

Attribute(s): FLAN - Foreign Language Degree ExHrs

ASL 2150L - Interm American Lang. Lab (1 Credits)

A laboratory designed to offer additional practice in sign language by means of videotapes.

Prerequisite(s): ASL 2140 and ASL 2140L

Corequisite(s): ASL 2150

Attribute(s): FLAN - Foreign Language Degree ExHrs

ASL 4161 - Adv American Sign Language (3 Credits)

A continuation of the study of American Sign Language at the advanced level. Added emphasis on idioms, body language and facial expressions.

Prerequisite(s): ASL 2150 and ASL 2150L

Corequisite(s): ASL 4161L

ASL 4161L - Adv American Sign Language Lab (1 Credits)

An advanced laboratory course designed to accompany Advanced American Sign Language (ASL) and to provide practice of the material presented through live demonstration as well as audio/video tapes.

Prerequisite(s): ASL 2150 and ASL 2150L

Corequisite(s): ASL 4161