

MUSIC: COMPOSITION (MUC)

MUC 1211 - Music Composition Skills (1 Credits)

Study of musicianship through the practice of musical composition.

The study includes music written since 1900 by composers across multiple styles and serves as the basis for composition projects that put theories into practice. The course also offers practical skills composers need to navigate the online musical landscape, with a particular focus on collaborating across distances through technology and multi-track recordings.

Prerequisite(s): MUT 1111 and MUT 1241 and MUT 1112 and MUT 1242 and MUT 2116 and MUT 2246 and MUT 2117 and MUT 2247

MUC 3213 - Music Composition I (3 Credits)

Introduction to contemporary music compositional techniques in small and large forms, supplemented by analysis, listening, and the use of technology.

Prerequisite(s): MUT 2117 and MUT 2247
