

PHILOSOPHERS AND SCHOOLS (PHP)

PHP 3786 - Existentialism (3 Credits)

Covers the Existentialist movement in nineteenth and twentieth century Europe which focuses on the analysis of concrete human existence, the self, finitude, freedom, and the ethical and psychological dilemmas of nihilism.

Prerequisite(s): ENC 1101 and ENC 1102

Attribute(s): RSMR - Religious Studies Minor

PHP 4930 - Major Figures in Philosophy (3 Credits)

A semester-long intensive study of a single philosopher or thematically linked group of philosophers whose work significantly repositions major philosophical dynamics. Figures studied will vary; course may be repeated once with change of content. 9 hours of PHH, PHI or PHP courses needed as prerequisite or permission of instructor.