

STUDENT HOLDS

Holds may be placed on a student's account, records, transcript, grades, diplomas or registration because of financial or other obligations to the university. Satisfaction of the obligation is required prior to the release of the hold by the office having authority.